
Dots

Collection Le Corbusier - Dots

Story behind the collection

This designer wallcovering is a reinterpretation of Le Corbusier's own work; using all of the innovative techniques but faithful to his unique philosophy. The pattern is based on the wallcovering with a dotted pattern that he designed in 1931. The dots are, however, no longer applied in oil paint but with a high-gloss relief ink. They provide a subtle reflection which allows the wallcovering to play with light, as Le Corbusier did with his architecture.
